GRAND CELEBRATION AT MANTI.

It is Participated in by Prominent Salt Lakeers—Speeches and Responses—Personal and General.

MANTI, Dec. 29.—[Special telegram to THE HERALD.]—To-day was a red letter day for the city of Manti witnessing the advent of the Rio Grande Western. The special train from Salt Lake City arrived at 11:50 and was greeted with the firing of guns and music from a number of bands. A throng of people had gathered at the depot grounds that exceeded in numbers the best attended conference. The highest enthusiasm prevailed as speeches were made by Mayor Luke, of Manti, and were answered by Superintendent Welby, and A. Stanton, of the party. The procession through the streets of the city was the longest ever known in this region of country and all classes were welcomed. The railroad is the greatest boon that could have been afforded them. The procession marched to the tabernacle, where a most sumptuous repast awaited them and a most charmingly arrayed band of ladies greeted the company by cheers and waving of handkerchiefs. After dinner, speeches were made by Messrs. Manti, of Manti, Mr. Welby, of the Rio Grande Western and Mr. Brown, general freight and passenger agent. The officials and guests of the train were there, also invited guests of Mount Pleasant and other places. A. E. Welby, superintendent; E. J. Gard, chief engineer; G. W. Snow, assistant engineer; J. D. Baker, master mechanic; William Brown, assistant general freight agent; Theron Geddis, auditor; H. P. McKelvey, purchasing agent; Doctors Allen, Foster, Charles, Sweeney, Dr. Hughes, oculist; J. C. McCaddon, Denver & Rio Grande express department; J. L. Riley, agent Salt Lake; Frank Selgrin, S. H. Babcock, chief of way agents; G. W. Vailley, general agent; O. N. Oliver, general manager Rio Grande Railway; Major Erb, Walker house; J. R. Walker, president of the Union National bank; W. E. F. Smith, wool dealer; J. W. Haman, C. E. Stanton, Attorney; J. H. Farmer, M. Badger, Henry Sadler, A. H. Watson, L. A. Benton, postmaster; L. C. Thomas, O. E. Kitch, head clerk postoffice department; D. P. Felt, of Felt, Olson & Co., Provost; Ed. Olson, merchant, and a number of other invited guests from various towns through the Saupete valley. A more representative and lively party of railroad and business men could not have been collected together. The most amusing incident that occurred as the train sped on its way toward the granary of Utah was the ineffectual attempt of the phlegmatic men of the party to transfer themselves into the narrow gauge cars at this, the contracted condition of the car doors being a serious obstacle to the ingress of Messrs. J. P. Farley, Major Erb, Freight Agent Brown, Frank Selgrin, and Express Agent McCaddon, and particularly Mr. Farley, who, after accomplishing his feat, when he had passed through a thrashing machine. The train moved along this newly completed road with as much celerity to the passengers as though they were riding over the New York & Erie road, which selects much credit upon the engineers of the road. Part of the festive party remained to participate in a ball given at O'Brien's hall, to which the whole company had a free pass. Mr. Welby, the superintendent, very courteously tendered a special train to take the party back at 12:30.

AMONG HIS GRANDCHILDREN.
J. H. Dodge, editor of the daily and weekly Arctic Star, of Wyoming, Neb., says: "I have seen the magic effect of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in cases of croup and colds among my grandchildren. We would not think of going to bed at night without a bottle of this remedy in the house. Chamberlain's remedies are growing more popular here every day." For sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.
